

Revelation 20:14. Do you want to be saved?

If Yes, "pray", Lord Jesus, I am a sinner, yet I believe you died and shed your blood for me, and that you rose from the dead on the third day. Forgive my sins and set me free from the bondage of sin.

By faith I accept you as my Saviour, and will serve you always.

THE FUNERAL PARLOR

AND BEYOND ...?

THE FUNERAL PARLOR,
AND BEYOND

Behind the casket, the flowers, the eulogies, lies a very different unseen, but equally real world where the deceased continues to exist.

Scripture describes that world In John 5:28 and 29, Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in the which all that are dead in the graves shall hear His voice.

And shall come forth: they that have done well, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation. If the deceased was a "born again" believer his soul is awaiting the resurrection of life (John 5:29); if not, his soul is in hell awaiting the resurrection of damnation.

Have you been born again?

One day, perhaps sooner than you think, you will be one of the deceased.

What if you die before you've had that essential new birth?

The next time you're in the funeral parlor, it could be you in the casket and your soul already in a devil's hell.
