

a conflict between two kingdoms and two kings (Matthew. 6:24; Colossians 1:13-14). The question is, are you willing to give up and give control of your life to Jesus Christ? Are you now willing to follow the King (Jesus) and accept His sacrifice for the forgiveness of your sins? (Acts 5:31) To "follow" means to come or go after; move behind and in the same direction; to come or go with; to accept the guidance or leadership of; to adhere to the cause or principles of; to be governed by; obey; comply with (John. 10:27-28; Romans. 10:9-10, 13). Jesus' command was that repentance and the forgiveness of sins should be preached to all the nations (Luke. 24:47). Would you consider changing your mind and turning to Him so that you might discover who Jesus Christ really is?

You can print this Tract For Free At:
www.fishingforsouls.com

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

a conflict between two kingdoms and two kings (Matthew. 6:24; Colossians 1:13-14). The question is, are you willing to give up and give control of your life to Jesus Christ? Are you now willing to follow the King (Jesus) and accept His sacrifice for the forgiveness of your sins? (Acts 5:31) To "follow" means to come or go after; move behind and in the same direction; to come or go with; to accept the guidance or leadership of; to adhere to the cause or principles of; to be governed by; obey; comply with (John. 10:27-28; Romans. 10:9-10, 13). Jesus' command was that repentance and the forgiveness of sins should be preached to all the nations (Luke. 24:47). Would you consider changing your mind and turning to Him so that you might discover who Jesus Christ really is?

You can print this Tract For Free At:
www.fishingforsouls.com

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

Jesus Christ, at one time, asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I am?" The answer to the question, "Who is Jesus Christ?" must be revealed to you by God Himself as stated in Matthew 16:17 or you just will not know! Before you answer "Who is Jesus?", let me tell you who some other men and women thought Him to be. Some said He was John the Baptist, Elijah, or that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life (Luke. 9:19). But Jesus asked, "but whom say ye that I am?" (Luke. 9:20). God has stated that in all the world, salvation is to be found in no one else but His Son (Acts 4:12).

To have a faulty view of Jesus Christ could have the most serious eternal consequences. When a man asked one day what must he do to be saved, the apostle Paul replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." (Acts 16:31). Believing in the Scripture does not mean just acknowledging some mental credence.

To rely upon, trust and commit ourselves to the Lord Jesus Christ, we must understand who He is. First of all, He is the Lord. The word "Lord" implies Master, Ruler, the one who has the right to control your life. This word also implies deity. Secondly, He is Jesus. The word "Jesus" means "God is salvation" and implies Jesus' saving work. Savior implies one who rescues another, so that they might live. So, Jesus rescues people from perishing so that they might have eternal life. Thirdly, He is "Christ" a "King" (Luke. 23:2). "Christ" is a word that means the Messiah, the "anointed" to rule. The Bible says to enter His Kingdom we must be "converted," which means we must turn around, change our direction, change our course by coming out from under the jurisdiction, control, and possession of the kingdom of Darkness (Colossians. 1:13-14). The apostle Paul describes this as turning from darkness to light, and from Satan to God so that we might receive the forgiveness of our sins (Acts 26:18).

The Scriptures teach that we are in

WHO IS JESUS CHRIST?

Jesus Christ, at one time, asked His disciples, "Who do men say that I am?" The answer to the question, "Who is Jesus Christ?" must be revealed to you by God Himself as stated in Matthew 16:17 or you just will not know! Before you answer "Who is Jesus?", let me tell you who some other men and women thought Him to be. Some said He was John the Baptist, Elijah, or that one of the prophets of long ago had come back to life (Luke. 9:19). But Jesus asked, "but whom say ye that I am?" (Luke. 9:20). God has stated that in all the world, salvation is to be found in no one else but His Son (Acts 4:12).

To have a faulty view of Jesus Christ could have the most serious eternal consequences. When a man asked one day what must he do to be saved, the apostle Paul replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved..." (Acts 16:31). Believing in the Scripture does not mean just acknowledging some mental credence.

To rely upon, trust and commit

ourselves to the Lord Jesus Christ, we must understand who He is. First of all, He is the Lord. The word "Lord" implies Master, Ruler, the one who has the right to control your life. This word also implies deity. Secondly, He is Jesus. The word "Jesus" means "God is salvation" and implies Jesus' saving work. Savior implies one who rescues another, so that they might live. So, Jesus rescues people from perishing so that they might have eternal life. Thirdly, He is "Christ" a "King" (Luke. 23:2). "Christ" is a word that means the Messiah, the "anointed" to rule. The Bible says to enter His Kingdom we must be "converted," which means we must turn around, change our direction, change our course by coming out from under the jurisdiction, control, and possession of the kingdom of Darkness (Colossians. 1:13-14). The apostle Paul describes this as turning from darkness to light, and from Satan to God so that we might receive the forgiveness of our sins (Acts 26:18).

The Scriptures teach that we are in