

see that you need a Saviour and the forgiveness of your sins?

You are now in for a big surprise in the eternal law court of God. Just at the time when God begins to read His verdict that we are guilty, an unexpected character enters the court room. It is a substitute that is willing to pay the fine for mankind's guilt. His name is Jesus Christ and He has paid your fine in full. The wages of your sin is eternal death (Romans. 3:23). Do you want your wages, or do you want mercy and grace.

Jesus took your sins and offers you His own righteousness for your acceptance before God, will you receive His gift? If yes, begin praying asking forgiveness, and continue until you are saved.

You can print this Tract For Free at
www.fishingforsouls.com

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING

TO ROMANS

see that you need a Saviour and the forgiveness of your sins?

You are now in for a big surprise in the eternal law court of God. Just at the time when God begins to read His verdict that we are guilty, an unexpected character enters the court room. It is a substitute that is willing to pay the fine for mankind's guilt. His name is Jesus Christ and He has paid your fine in full. The wages of your sin is eternal death (Romans. 3:23). Do you want your wages, or do you want mercy and grace.

Jesus took your sins and offers you His own righteousness for your acceptance before God, will you receive His gift? If yes, begin praying asking forgiveness, and continue until you are saved.

You can print this Tract For Free at
www.fishingforsouls.com

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING

TO ROMANS

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ROMANS

In the year A.D. 57, a man named Paul wrote a letter to some Christian believers in Rome. In this letter, Paul gave one of the clearest understandings that has ever been written on the subject of the gospel of grace.

No matter what church you attend I'm sure you have heard the all familiar term "the gospel." But what is it? We've all been told to go preach the gospel to every creature, but how can we, unless it is clearly understood?

In Paul's letter to the Romans the gospel is clearly defined. The story that unfolds in Romans can be likened unto a large court room drama. Sitting on the bench as judge is Almighty God. Those on trial are the whole of humanity (mankind). And the prosecutor or district attorney is the apostle Paul. He has just charged all of mankind with breaking God's law. The Jews with God's written law and the Gentiles with breaking the moral laws of their conscience. The verdict is about to be read. God will find all men "guilty." Guilty of a lawless attitude toward Him, impurity in thought, and missing the mark or standard of His perfection.

If we visited a penitentiary and there met a murderer, robber and someone there for tax evasion, would there be a difference in these men? Yes, but in the eyes of the law there is no distinction. Why? For all are guilty of breaking the law. The Bible says that whoever keeps God's law and yet fails in one point is guilty of all.

How many lies does it take to become a liar? How many times does it take lusting after a woman to make one an adulterer in his heart? You cannot say you are basically good, when God says there is none good not even one (Romans. 3:23). Friend, don't you

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ROMANS

In the year A.D. 57, a man named Paul wrote a letter to some Christian believers in Rome. In this letter, Paul gave one of the clearest understandings that has ever been written on the subject of the gospel of grace.

No matter what church you attend I'm sure you have heard the all familiar term "the gospel." But what is it? We've all been told to go preach the gospel to every creature, but how can we, unless it is clearly understood?

In Paul's letter to the Romans the gospel is clearly defined. The story that unfolds in Romans can be likened unto a large court room drama. Sitting on the bench as judge is Almighty God. Those on trial are the whole of humanity (mankind). And the prosecutor or district attorney is the apostle Paul. He has just charged all of mankind with breaking God's law. The Jews with God's written law and the Gentiles with breaking the moral laws of their conscience. The verdict is about to be read. God will find all men "guilty." Guilty of a lawless attitude toward Him, impurity in thought, and missing the mark or standard of His perfection.

If we visited a penitentiary and there met a murderer, robber and someone there for tax evasion, would there be a difference in these men? Yes, but in the eyes of the law there is no distinction. Why? For all are guilty of breaking the law. The Bible says that whoever keeps God's law and yet fails in one point is guilty of all.

How many lies does it take to become a liar? How many times does it take lusting after a woman to make one an adulterer in his heart? You cannot say you are basically good, when God says there is none good not even one (Romans. 3:23). Friend, don't you