

says, "but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus our Lord." You are now standing at the crossroads of your life. You, and you alone must decide between heaven and hell. Which one will you choose? TO receive eternal life, all you need to do is repent of your sin and confess to God that you are a sinner. If you are ready to receive him, Pray, "Jesus", I'm a sinner, lost and headed for an eternal hell. I plead with you to forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and make me a new creature in Christ Jesus. I believe you died on the cross for my sins. I now confess my sins with my mouth and I believe in my heart that God raised you from the dead. Forgive all my sins and set me free from the bondage of sin. By faith I accept you as my Saviour and I will serve you forever.

You Can Print This Tract Free At:
www.fishingforsouls.com

THE CROSS-ROAD

OF LIFE

says, "but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus our Lord." You are now standing at the crossroads of your life. You, and you alone must decide between heaven and hell. Which one will you choose? TO receive eternal life, all you need to do is repent of your sin and confess to God that you are a sinner. If you are ready to receive him, Pray, "Jesus", I'm a sinner, lost and headed for an eternal hell. I plead with you to forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and make me a new creature in Christ Jesus. I believe you died on the cross for my sins. I now confess my sins with my mouth and I believe in my heart that God raised you from the dead. Forgive all my sins and set me free from the bondage of sin. By faith I accept you as my Saviour and I will serve you forever.

You Can Print This Tract Free At:
www.fishingforsouls.com

THE CROSS-ROAD

OF LIFE

THE CROSS-ROAD OF LIFE.

IF a traveler were to go on a long trip, he would watch for the highway signs that marked the route and direction. Every now and then he may come to a town, and the place where a decision is required. The town has a road that goes through it, and a by-pass that goes around it. As the driver approaches the town, he must decide what he wants to do. He must decide whether or not he wants to go through the town and bear all the grief that goes along with being in a strange town, or he may by-pass the town and continue happily on his way. But he must decide. The decision is his.

THE life that we are now living is somewhat the same. You might say that we are just passing through, and as we do so, we are watching for those signs that will guide and direct us.

But then, we come to the place of decision, that time in life when we decide where we will spend eternity. Will we decide to go through eternity in hell, bearing all the grief, pain and sorrow that goes along with eternal damnation, or will we decide to spend eternity in heaven? We must decide. The decision is ours. And we must decide today.

God's Word, the Bible, says that there are only two ways to choose from, the broad way that leads to destruction, and the narrow way that leads to everlasting life (Matthew 7:13,14). The Bible also says that "now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." (II Corinthians 6:2). This means that the offer of salvation is good for today, yesterday is history and we have no guarantee that tomorrow will come.

MY friend, you have now come to the crossroads in your life, and you alone must decide which way you'll go.

The Bible says that there is none righteous (Romans. 3:10) because all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans. 3:23). The wages (our just due) for our sin is death (eternal damnation in hell). But Romans 6:23 does not stop here, for it

-

-

-

THE CROSS-ROAD OF LIFE.

IF a traveler were to go on a long trip, he would watch for the highway signs that marked the route and direction. Every now and then he may come to a town, and the place where a decision is required. The town has a road that goes through it, and a by-pass that goes around it. As the driver approaches the town, he must decide what he wants to do. He must decide whether or not he wants to go through the town and bear all the grief that goes along with being in a strange town, or he may by-pass the town and continue happily on his way. But he must decide. The decision is his.

THE life that we are now living is somewhat the same. You might say that we are just passing through, and as we do so, we are watching for those signs that will guide and direct us.

But then, we come to the place of decision, that time in life when we decide where we will spend eternity. Will we decide to go through eternity in hell, bearing all the grief, pain and sorrow that goes along with eternal damnation, or will we decide to spend eternity in heaven? We must decide. The decision is ours. And we must decide today.

God's Word, the Bible, says that there are only two ways to choose from, the broad way that leads to destruction, and the narrow way that leads to everlasting life (Matthew 7:13,14). The Bible also says that "now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation." (II Corinthians 6:2). This means that the offer of salvation is good for today, yesterday is history and we have no guarantee that tomorrow will come.

MY friend, you have now come to the crossroads in your life, and you alone must decide which way you'll go.

The Bible says that there is none righteous (Romans. 3:10) because all have sinned and come short of the glory of God (Romans. 3:23). The wages (our just due) for our sin is death (eternal damnation in hell). But Romans 6:23 does not stop here, for it