

God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God (1st. John 5:13. You have the responsibility to live for Christ (1 Cor. 6:19).

Are you prepared to meet The Judge (Jesus Christ)?

If not, pray: "Jesus", I'm a sinner, lost and headed for an eternal hell. I plead with you to forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and make me a new creature in Christ Jesus. I believe you died on the cross for my sins. I now confess my sins with my mouth and I believe in my heart that God raised you from the dead. Forgive all my sins and set me free from the bondage of sin. By faith I accept you as my Saviour and I will serve you forever.

You Can Print This Tract On Our Web Site For Free At:

www.fishingforsouls.com

TELL IT TO

THE JUDGE

God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God (1st. John 5:13. You have the responsibility to live for Christ (1 Cor. 6:19).

Are you prepared to meet The Judge (Jesus Christ)?

If not, pray: "Jesus", I'm a sinner, lost and headed for an eternal hell. I plead with you to forgive me of all my sins, come into my heart and make me a new creature in Christ Jesus. I believe you died on the cross for my sins. I now confess my sins with my mouth and I believe in my heart that God raised you from the dead. Forgive all my sins and set me free from the bondage of sin. By faith I accept you as my Saviour and I will serve you forever.

You Can Print This Tract On Our Web Site For Free At:

www.fishingforsouls.com

TELL IT TO

THE JUDGE

TELL IT TO THE JUDGE

There are laws governing one thing or another. Some laws seem pointless, but most are good and they serve a useful purpose. For example, a traffic light. These exist for the orderly flow of traffic, but not everyone wants to obey them. People, for whatever reason, run red lights and when the police catch them, they have an excuse for why they ran the red light. But the policeman doing his job just replies, "Tell it to the judge." Or the person caught exceeding the speed limit, "But officer, I was ..." Again, the officer just says, "Tell it to the judge."

The law was established, but it was broken. Was that the fault of the officer? No, it was not. His job was to enforce the law. So, whose fault was it that the law was broken? It was the fault of the one who broke it. He did so with no regard to the consequence, so, "Tell it to the judge." "Do the crime, do the time."

People of this world are so wrapped up with their jobs, family, sports, entertainment, etc., that they have no time for God. Daily they ignore His warning of, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." (Ezekiel. 18:4) How have you sinned? Just by being born into the human race - "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; ..." (Isaiah. 53:6a)

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon" (Isaiah 55:7).

Friend, God loves you (John. 3:16), Christ shed His blood and died for you (1 Peter. 1:19), God is being patient with you because He does not want you to die without Christ and go to hell (2Peter 3:9). If you repent, you won't have to Tell it to THE JUDGE."

If you continue in your sinful ways and fail to repent, then you will face The Judge (Jesus) and receive the verdict.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of

TELL IT TO THE JUDGE

There are laws governing one thing or another. Some laws seem pointless, but most are good and they serve a useful purpose. For example, a traffic light. These exist for the orderly flow of traffic, but not everyone wants to obey them. People, for whatever reason, run red lights and when the police catch them, they have an excuse for why they ran the red light. But the policeman doing his job just replies, "Tell it to the judge." Or the person caught exceeding the speed limit, "But officer, I was ..." Again, the officer just says, "Tell it to the judge."

The law was established, but it was broken. Was that the fault of the officer? No, it was not. His job was to enforce the law. So, whose fault was it that the law was broken? It was the fault of the one who broke it. He did so with no regard to the consequence, so, "Tell it to the judge." "Do the crime, do the time."

People of this world are so wrapped up with their jobs, family, sports, entertainment, etc., that they have no time for God. Daily they ignore His warning of, "The soul that sinneth, it shall die." (Ezekiel. 18:4) How have you sinned? Just by being born into the human race - "All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; ..." (Isaiah. 53:6a)

Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon" (Isaiah 55:7).

Friend, God loves you (John. 3:16), Christ shed His blood and died for you (1 Peter. 1:19), God is being patient with you because He does not want you to die without Christ and go to hell (2Peter 3:9). If you repent, you won't have to Tell it to THE JUDGE."

If you continue in your sinful ways and fail to repent, then you will face The Judge (Jesus) and receive the verdict.

These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of