At The End of this Life

As the conductor came for his fare on a streetcar in Maryland, Johnny gave him a tract on, "Where Hell Is." As Johnny distributed tracts, he met some of his old friends who mocked him as he spoke of the Lord Jesus Christ and God's way of salvation. One of them said, "Can you tell me where hell is?" After a moment's hesitation, Johnny answered, "Yes, at the end of a Christless life." The conductor laughed and retorted, "You always give me one of those tracts; I suppose you think I'm a very evil fellow. But "I'm as good as anyone." Johnny held up his Bible, "Do you see this Book?" he asked; "it tells me, 'The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked' ----. (Jer ' 17:9). "Oh," he said, "there's plenty of time for me to think about these things; I'm still young." He little imagined " ---.This night thy soul shall be required of thee" ---. (Luke 12:20). On leaving the car Johnny said, "Remember, the time is short. You don't need
