

shell, now holding a lost soul that could have been filled with God, but now it's lost in the deepest pit on earth. Do you want to go to a place like this. If not, Say, Lord Jesus, I am a sinner, yet I believe you died and shed your blood for me, and rose from the dead on the third day. Forgive me and set me free from the bondage of sin.

HELL, WHY WOULD

YOU GO THERE?

WHY GO TO HELL?

Hell was never intended for man. But some are choosing to go there. You see, I have been there, I have personally felt the pains of the lost. The Lord has taken me there on several occasions, and has also let me experience their damnation. Picture this, someone takes a baseball bat and with one swift blow knocks everything out of your head that was worth knowing. The only thing left in your head is the knowledge of the gospel. The knowledge that you are in Hell, separated from anything that God is the author of. The only other thing left in your head is; you have missed everything of God. You have lost your very soul that was capable of experiencing God, and all His goodness. You lay there like a stone, totally powerless and under the authority of the devil. This is the soul without God. Lifeless like a cold rock, everything gone. All your senses are alive, more alive than ever before, but all you can know is that you came here of your own free will. You are only a
